

THE SINGERS

Conductor: Donald Halliday

AFTERNOON CONCERT & TEA

ST MARY MAGDALENE, LONGBENTON

2 pm Saturday 14 May 2016

PROGRAMME

1. Now is the month of Maying – Thomas Morley [c. 1557 – 1602]
2. Kyrie for double choir – Felix Mendelssohn [1809 – 1847]
3. Lift thine eyes (from Elijah) – Mendelssohn
4. Shakespeare songs set by Matthew Harris
 - i) Tell me where is fancy bred (from The Merchant of Venice) (music composed 1990)
 - ii) O mistress mine (from Twelfth Night) (music composed 1992)
5. Londonderry Air – anon.
6. Psalm 23 – chant by Herrick Bunney [1915 – 1997]
7. Loch Lomond – arr. for male voices Vaughan Williams [1872 – 1958] [solo: Martin Lay]
8. We shall walk through the valley in peace – arr. Moses Hogan [1957 – 2003]
9. My bonny lad – arr. Fitzsimmons
10. Bobby Shaftoe – arr. Fitzsimmons

The Singers

This is our final concert for our 2015/2016 season. During the past year The Singers have sung in Durham Cathedral, Liverpool Cathedral, St Giles Cathedral (Edinburgh), and Cologne Cathedral as well as St Aposteln, St Ursula and St Kunibert Basilicas in Cologne. The choir also gave its annual Christmas Concert in St George's, Jesmond, a joint concert with King Edward VI School in Morpeth, as well as concerts in St Vincent-Haus (Cologne) and St Mary Magdalene, Longbenton.

singers.org.uk